Ultimate Luxury Awaits at this Beachfront Villa in Anguilla

📅 April 3, 2018

Anguilla, ranked by Conde Nast as one of the best beaches in the Caribbean, is home to Frangipani Beach Resort, a premier luxury boutique resort located on the soft white sands of Meads Bay. Offering an exquisite island getaway, the resort features an impressive 5,000 square feet beachfront villa, specially designed to host fantasy-filled holiday escapes in a private sanctuary for families and intimate groups.

Separated from the resort, the private villa offers four ocean-facing bedrooms equipped with bathtub, indoor shower and outdoor shower. Occupying two floors, guests will find two bedrooms upstairs along with an entertainment area and second floor balcony with sweeping views of Meads Bay Beach. The kitchen located downstairs, is equipped with state of the art appliances and when guests are craving a delicious Anguillan feast they have the option of hiring a private chef for their stay. Additionally, the Villa includes a spacious living room, indoor dining area and two other oceanfront bedrooms. Once outside, guests can spot their own private pool and pool deck to lounge peacefully.

For the ultimate in luxury, this villa offers privacy with the benefit of access to Frangipani's exclusive amenities:

- Concierge services
- Breakfast credit at Straw Hat Restaurant (Named Top 50 Hot New Restaurants of the World by Conde Nast Traveler)
- Complimentary water sports(including stand up paddleboards, kayaks, tubing, wakeboarding, water skiing and a Hobie Cat)
- Access to guest-only boat trips and charter opportunities
- Fitness Center
- Massages
